Sunbrella® x David Rockwell Currents Collection

Sunbrella® x David Rockwell Currents Collection

The Sunbrella x David Rockwell Collection, Currents, features 35 high-performance fabrics designed to infuse both indoor and outdoor commercial spaces with the tranquility and harmony of nature. Each of the collection's six styles pulls from an abstract patterning of the elements earth, air and water, balanced by varying yarn textures and rich color to deliver an organic authenticity and comforting softness without compromising performance. A perfect combination of Rockwell Group's passion for creating cohesive indoor/outdoor spaces and Sunbrella fabrics' proven indoor/outdoor performance, this bleach-cleanable, highly-durable and fade-resistant collection meets the needs of the most demanding spaces, both inspired by nature and designed to withstand it.

Cassava Spring

Cassava

An organically textured plain that is woven with a slub yarn to mimic bark cloth and deliver the authentic feel of handwoven pieces. Cassava is offered in a range of colors from moody blues and airy neutrals to botanical greens and warmer terracotta and brown, offering a foundation texture to this elemental collection.

Mountains Slate

Mountains

A large-scale pattern that emulates the shadows of a mountain skyline. This ethereal design is woven with a chenille yarn to create a soft subtle influence balanced by a dramatic scale, mirroring the harmony of nature with the sharper edges of earth and stone merging with the softness of air and sky.
